Fleetwood Lifeboat Station

Stephen Musgrave
David Pearce

Stephen will talk about the people of the lifeboat service and the changes in personal attributes from the 19th to today.

Stephen also describes some incidents he was involved in to highlight some of the difficulties faced by lifeboat crews & will describe the changes Lifeboaters have made to keep up with the revolution in the technology of lifeboat design. A particular example, Morecambe Bay June 1897, will be used to illustrate how the R.N.L.I. crews have changed in their response to distress situations. . .
